State of Kansas
Kansas Development Finance Authority

Notice of Hearing

A public hearing will be conducted at 9 a.m. Thursday, December 16, in the offices of the Kansas Development Finance Authority, 555 S. Kansas Ave., Suite 202, Topeka, on the proposal for the K DFA to issue its Agricultural Development Revenue Bond for the project numbered below in the respective maximum principal amount. The bond will be issued to assist the borrower named below (who will be the owner and operator of the project) to finance the cost in the amount of the bond, which is then typically purchased by a lender bank who then, through the K DFA, loans the bond proceeds to the borrower for the purposes of acquiring the project. The project shall be located as shown:

Project No. 000799—Maximum Principal Amount: $159,500. Owner/Operator: Tracy A. and Cathy Shogren. Description: Acquisition of 160 acres of agricultural land and related improvements and equipment to be used by the owner/operator for farming purposes. The project is being financed by the lender for Tracy A. and Cathy Shogren and is located at the Northeast Quarter of Section 21, Township 18, Range 4, McPherson County, Kansas, approximately 6 miles north and 5 miles west of McPherson.

The bond, when issued, will be a limited obligation of the K DFA and will not constitute a general obligation or indebtedness of the state of Kansas or any political subdivision thereof, including the K DFA, nor will it be an indebtedness for which the faith and credit and taxing powers of the state of Kansas are pledged. The bond will be payable solely from amounts received from the respective borrower, the obligation of which will be sufficient to pay the principal of, interest and redemption premium, if any, on the bond when it becomes due.

All individuals who appear at the hearing will be given an opportunity to express their views concerning the proposal to issue the bond to finance the project, and all written comments previously filed with the K DFA at its offices at 555 S. Kansas Ave., Suite 202, Topeka, 66603, will be considered. Additional information regarding the project may be obtained by contacting the K DFA.

Department of Revenue

Notice of Hearing on Proposed
Administrative Regulations

A public hearing will be conducted by the Department of Revenue at 9 a.m. Tuesday, February 1, in the secretary's conference room, Room 230, Docking State Office Building, 915 S.W. Harrison, Topeka, to consider proposals to amend or repeal nine existing retailers' sales tax regulations and to adopt four new ones. Copies of these proposals are posted and available for download at www.ksrevenue.org.

This 60-day notice provides members of the public the opportunity to provide written comments to the department about the proposed changes. Any interested party may submit written comments to Tom Hatten, Tax Specialist, Office of Policy and Research, Room 230, Docking State Office Building, 915 S.W. Harrison, Topeka, 66612, or by e-mail at tom_hatten@kdor.state.ks.us. Written comments may be submitted before or at the public hearing.

The public hearing will provide all interested parties a reasonable opportunity to comment about each one of the proposals. In order to allow each participant the opportunity to present his or her views, the department may request oral presentations to be limited in duration.

Any individual with a disability may request accommodation in order to participate in the public hearing and may request the proposed regulations and economic impact statements in an accessible format. Requests for accommodation should be made at least five working days before the scheduled hearing by contacting Tom Hatten at (785) 296-3081 or TTY (785) 296-6461. Accessible parking is located in State Parking Lot No. 2, south of the Docking Building facing Harrison Street to the east. The east entrance to the Docking Building is accessible.

These proposals are submitted for adoption on a permanent basis. The following discussion provides a summary of each proposal to amend or repeal an existing regulation or adopt a new one. A summary of the economic impact of the proposal follows each summary.

Article 36.—KANSAS RETAILERS' SALE TAXRegulations Being Revoked:

Revocation of 92-19-3. Credit, conditional, and installment sales. This regulation is being replaced by 92-19-3a, credit sales, conditional sales, and other sales and service transactions that allow for deferred payment, and 92-19-3b, allowances for bad debts.

Economic Impact: The Department of Revenue does not anticipate that revoking 92-19-3 will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because it is being replaced by 92-19-3a and 92-19-3b. See economic impact for 92-19-3a and 92-19-3b, below.

Revocation of 92-19-10. Repossessed property. This regulation is being replaced by 92-19-3c, repossessed goods.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that revoking 92-19-10 will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals since it is being replaced by 92-19-3c. See economic impact for 92-19-3c, below.

Revocation of 92-19-16b. Manufacturers' rebates for motor vehicles. This regulation is being revoked because the 2010 Legislature did not extend the exemption for manufacturers' rebates assigned to a dealer at the time of a vehicle purchase. K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3602(II)(3)(E).

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that revoking 92-19-16b will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because the department implemented the expiration of the exemption for manufacturer's rebates in Notice 09-05.

Revocation of 92-19-40. Interstate telephone and telegraph services; sales for noncommercial use. This regulation is being revoked because K.S.A. 79-3603(b), which taxed "telephone or telegraph services," was updated by substituting language appropriate to current telecommunications operations and technology. See also definitions at K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3602 (uu) through (ggg). Department publication EDU-65, Sales Taxation and Sourcing of Telecommunication Services, explains how telecommunications services are taxed under K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3603(b).

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that revoking 92-19-40 will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because the department's implemented the statutory changes in publication EDU-65.

Revocation of 92-19-42. Sales of drugs and pharmaceuticals to veterinarians. The Streamlined Sales Tax Project (SSTP) adopted uniform definitions for "prescription" and other medical terms. This regulation is being revoked because it incorrectly states that sales of prescription-only drugs to veterinarians are taxable. K.S.A. 79-3602(pp); K.S.A. 79-3606(p); K.S.A. 65-1626.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that revoking 92-19-42 will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because the department has implemented this change in several department publications. See e.g. 2005 Self-Audit Fact Sheet and the ST-28V, Veterinarian Exemption Certificate.

Regulations Being Amended:

92-19-16a. Gifts, premiums, prizes, coupons, and rebates. This regulation is amended to eliminate its citation of 92-19-16b, which is being revoked because the exemption of manufacturers' rebates for motor vehicles was not extended. K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3602(II)(3)(E).

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that the changes to 92-19-16a will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals. See Revocation of 92-19-16b, discussed above. The department implemented the changes caused by the expiration of the exemption in Notice 09-05.

92-19-49b. Returned goods returned when a sale is rescinded. This regulation is amended to distinguish returned goods from repossessed goods, which are now discussed in 92-19-3c, repossessed goods. The policy for how a retailer account for returned goods is unchanged.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that the changes to 92-19-49b will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because the current policy isn't being changed.

92-19-59. Private letter rulings. This regulation is amended to more clearly reflect constitutional requirements fixed by the Separation of Powers Doctrine that determine the weight given by the judicial branch to department policy statements and other administrative interpretations.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that the changes to 92-19-59 will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because the changes clarify the legal weight the Separation of Powers Doctrine allows to be placed on an agency's interpretation of Kansas statutes.

92-19-73. Membership fees and dues. The revisions to this regulation are intended to explain more clearly how "refundable" membership payments are taxed. These clarifications do not change current policy.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that the changes to 92-19-73 will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals since the changes are only intended to clarify existing policy.

New Regulations:

92-19-3a. Credit sales, conditional sales, and other sales and service transactions that allow deferred payment. This new regulation is one of a number of new and amended regulations that update the discussion of credit and conditional sales in the current regulations to conform to SSTP definitions and sourcing requirements codified in Kansas statutes. See e.g. K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3602(r); K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3669(b)(2); K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3670(d). K.A.R. 92-19-3a discusses financing leases at length because sale tax treatment of financing leases by different states vary and sometimes conflict. These different state treatments impact Kansas when goods are purchased here by out-of-state consumers who finance the sale through an out-of-state financial institution.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that 92-19-3a will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals. This is because nearly all, if not all, of the substantive changes made to the policy for leases were made to bring the existing lease regulations in line with the Kansas statutes that codified the SSTP definitions and sourcing requirements. See e.g. K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3602(r); K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3669(b)(2); K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3670(d).

92-19-3b. Allowances for bad debts. K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3674, which Kansas adopted as part of the SSTP uniformity efforts, allows a retailer to claim a bad debt deduction for sales tax when it claims a bad debt deduction for federal income tax purposes.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that 92-19-3b will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because it explains the reporting requirements for claiming a bad debt deduction under K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3674.

92-19-3c. Repossessed goods. Goods are "repossessed" by a retailer or lender after legal action is taken to recover goods sold on credit or whose sale is financed. 92-19-3c explains how to account for goods that are repossessed and then resold, and how to adjust earlier bad debt deductions for goods that are later repossessed. One of the main purposes of this regulation is to alert taxpayers about the requirements in K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3602(q)(1) and K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3674 for repossessed goods.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that 92-19-3c will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals because its main purpose is to alert taxpayers to requirements in K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3602(q)(1) and K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 79-3674 that relate to repossessed goods.

92-19-55b. Operating leases. Operating leases are "true" leases. Under Kansas sales tax law, each lease installment is treated as a separate sale. This is important because the state and local tax for each installment payment is sourced according to the "primary property location of each period covered by the payment." K.S.A. 79-3670(b). K.A.R. 92-19-55b explains when a business can and cannot claim a resale exemption when it buys equipment to lease, rent, or use. It also explains how businesses can distinguish customer charges for a lease from customer charges for services. This is important because contracts for leases and services are often taxed differently. The department's administrative interpretations of how sales tax applies to operating leases are published in EDU-32A, Sales Tax Guidelines: How Kansas Motor Vehicle Dealers and Leasing Companies Should Charge Sales Tax on Leases. Nearly everything in EDU-32A applies to operating leases for goods other than motor vehicles.

Economic Impact: The department does not anticipate that 92-19-55b will have an economic impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals. This is because 92-19-55b consolidates the department's administrative interpretations of the controlling statutes, which are currently published in several different documents, rather than in one place. See e.g. EDU-32A; Notice 03-04; Notice 02-09.

A copy of these regulations and the economic impact statement may be obtained from the Kansas Department of Revenue, Office of Policy and Research, at the contact information above or via the department's Web site at www.ksrevenue.org.
