The 60-day public petition period will directly follow the EPA's 45-day review period. Interested parties may contact KDHE to determine if the EPA's 45-day review period has been waived.

Contact Ward Burns, U.S. EPA, Region 7, Air Permitting and Compliance Branch, 11201 Renner Blvd., Lenexa, KS 66219, 913-551-7960, to determine when the 45-day EPA review period ends and the 60-day petition period commences.

Governmental Ethics Commission

Opinion No. 2017-01

Written January 25, 2017, to all interested persons.

Synopsis: For purposes of K.S.A. 25-4153a, a campaign contribution from a revocable living trust is treated as if made directly by the grantor when contributed during the life of the grantor.

Cited herein: K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 25-4153a.

To all interested persons:

Pursuant to K.S.A. 25-4159, the Kansas Governmental Ethics Commission issues this opinion regarding campaign contributions to legislators, candidates for the legislature, statewide elected officers or candidates for statewide office, and recognized political committees for the senate or house of representatives, made subsequent to January 1, through adjournment, sine die, or any other time the legislature is in session.

Factual Statement

Commonly called an inter vivos trust or living trust, one may be set up by an individual during his or her life for a variety of legal, tax, or estate planning reasons. Such trusts, when revocable, allow the grantor to retain complete control over trust assets. Trust assets are used by the grantor as if their own. Trust income is reported under the grantor's social security number, not a distinct tax identification number assigned to the trust.

Analysis and Opinion

Because the grantor can amend or revoke a revocable trust and the grantor's initial transfer of assets does not alienate those assets from the grantor's control, courts have held the assets are treated as if owned by the grantor for tax liability purposes. See Harry G. McNeely v. U.S., 16 F.3d 303 (8th Cir. 1994), and Estate of Kisling v. Commissioner, 32 F3rd 1222 (8th Cir. 1994). These holdings are now law, as codified by The 1997 Taxpayer Relief Act. We adopt this position expressed by the courts and tax code that disbursements from revocable living trusts during the grantor's life are considered as if made by the grantor.

Conclusion

We opine a campaign contribution to a legislator, candidate for the legislature, statewide elected officer or candidate for statewide office or a recognized political committee for the senate or house of representatives may be accepted from a revocable living trust as if the contribution was made by an individual if the trust grantor is living when the contribution is made.

Opinion No. 2017-02

Written January 25, 2017, to Chiquita Coggs, Executive Director, Kansas Board of Cosmetology, 714 SW Jackson St., Suite #100, Topeka, KS 66603.

Synopsis: employees of the Kansas Board of Cosmetology may accept a gifted treadmill on behalf of the state. If any giver is licensed, inspected, or regulated by the Board of Cosmetology, then the gift, or the giver's portion of the gift, may not be valued at more than $40 in aggregate with any other gift to the Board of Cosmetology during a calendar year.

Cited herein: K.S.A. 46-237(c), K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 46-237a, and K.A.R. 19-40-3a(b).

Dear Ms. Coggs:

We understand that, in your capacity as executive director for the Kansas Board of Cosmetology (Cosmetology), you request our opinion concerning application of the state governmental ethics law, K.S.A. 46-215 et seq. Our response to your request is limited to its applicability. This opinion does not address whether some other statutory system, common law theory, or agency rule or regulation applies to your inquiry.

Factual Statement

Agency staff is considering converting existing space into an employee lounge that would include exercise equipment for use by employees of the agency during breaks. The lounge would be dedicated to a longtime Cosmetology employee who was recently killed in an automobile accident. Staff is considering the purchase of a treadmill for the lounge with agency funds. A group of schools (predominantly private) that worked with and appreciated the late Cosmetology employee have asked if they could give a treadmill.

Question

Does the acceptance of a treadmill by the Cosmetology employees, to be given by the schools, violate the state level conflict of interest laws?

Analysis and Opinion

K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 46-237a states in pertinent part:

"(a) The provisions of this section shall apply to:

(4) all officers and employees of the executive branch of state government...

(b) No person subject to the provisions of this section shall solicit or accept any gift, economic opportunity, loan, gratuity, special discount or service provided because of such person's official position, except:

(3) anything of value received by the person on behalf of the state that inures to the benefit of the state or that becomes the property of the state."

K.A.R. 19-40-3a defines the term "gift" as follows:

"(b) 'Gift' means the transfer of money or anything of value unless legal consideration of a reasonably equal or greater value is received in return."

Since the Cosmetology employees are subject to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 46-237a and the treadmill is a thing of value for which the employees have not given any consideration in return for their receipt, the treadmill would be considered a gift pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 46-237a. However, if the treadmill was received by the Cosmetology employees on behalf of the state and it inures to the benefit of the state, or becomes the property of the state, acceptance would not be in violation of the statute.

The request for this opinion does not indicate whether the schools offering to give the treadmill are licensed, inspected or regulated by Cosmetology. If so then each schools' pro rata portion of the gifted treadmill is subject to the $40 limitation set forth in K.S.A. 46-237(c):

"[n]o person licensed, inspected or regulated by a state agency shall offer, pay, give or make any special economic opportunity, gift, loan, gratuity, special discount, favor, hospitality or service having an aggregate value of $40 or more in any calendar year to such agency or any state officer or employee..."

Conclusion

The Cosmetology employees could not accept the treadmill on their own behalf. Cosmetology employees may accept the treadmill from the schools on behalf of the state without violating the state level conflict of interest laws. If a donating school is licensed, inspected, or regulated by Cosmetology, that school's pro rata share of the treadmill's cost must be less than $40 in aggregate with any other gift to Cosmetology within any calendar year.

Opinion No. 2017-03

Written January 25, 2017, to Kim Borchers, Deputy Chief of Staff, Office of the Governor, Capitol Building, Room 241 South, Topeka, KS 66612.

Synopsis: If a donor, or person to be solicited for a donation, does not have a special interest and the Office of the Governor does not license, inspect, or regulate the donor or person to be solicited, then a state employee in the Governor's office may solicit and accept financial donations for the Governor's Weight Loss Challenge when an exception of the general prohibitions of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 46-237a applies.

Cited herein: K.S.A. 46-217, 46-228, 46-236, 46-237, 2016 Supp. 46-237a and K.A.R. 19-40-3a(b).

Dear Mrs. Borchers:

We understand that you have requested this opinion in your capacity as Deputy Chief of Staff for the Office of the Governor. This opinion is in response to your request to the Kansas Governmental Ethics Commission (Commission), concerning application of the state governmental ethics law, K.S.A. 46-215 et seq. We note at the outset that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to the applicability of K.S.A. 46-215 et seq., and the Commission's opinion does not address whether some other statutory system, common law theory, or agency rule or regulation applies to your inquiry.

Factual Statement

The State of Kansas is in the process of launching an initiative that encourages a healthy lifestyle challenge for state employees. Part of that initiative will involve a Governor's Weight Loss Challenge. As in the past, the state plans on awarding cash incentives for any state employee who chooses to participate and meets the criteria as laid out in the challenge. All funds collected will be directed to the Kansas Department of Administration and paid out from this agency. The program will be administered through the staff of the Kansas Department of Health and Environment. The prize money will be distributed as cash pay-outs and as gift certificates.

Question

May a state employee in the Office of the Governor solicit and accept financial donations for the Governor's Weight Loss Challenge from vendors of the state and other businesses and not violate the general prohibition to solicit and accept under K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 46-237a?

Analysis and Opinion

A gift, economic opportunity, loan, gratuity, special discount or service received by a state employee is not prohibited by the state governmental ethics laws unless it is because of the official position of the state employee. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 46-237a(b). "'Gift' means the transfer of money or anything of value unless legal consideration of a reasonably equal or greater value is received in return." K.A.R. 19-40-3a(b). "'Economic opportunity' means any purchase, sale, lease, contract, option, or other transaction or arrangement involving property or services wherein a state [...] employee [...] may gain a personal economic benefit, but not including any gift." K.S.A. 46-217.

In Governmental Ethics Opinion 1999-50, the Commission determined that:

the term "official position" refers to an individual's particular position with the state and does not apply generally to a person because they are a state employee. For guidance, the Commission notes that a gift or discount which is provided to all state employees is not being provided to a person because of his or her "official position." On the other hand, a gift or discount which is provided to all purchasing agents, for example, or all employees of a particular agency, will be deemed to be provided because of such persons' "official position".

Applying this meaning of "official position" to the facts presented, the solicitation or acceptance by a state employee for financial donations to be used for the Governor's Weight Loss Challenge is within the employee's official position. Such solicitation or acceptance is prohibited unless one or more exceptions listed in subparagraphs (1)-(4) of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 46-237a(b) applies. The following circumstances allow a state employee to solicit or accept gifts or economic opportunities in their official position:

- 1. A gift having an aggregate value of less than $40 given at a ceremony or public function where the person is accepting the gift in such person's official capacity; or
- 2. Gifts from relatives or gifts from personal friends when it is obvious to the person that the gift is not

- being given because of the person's official position; or
- 3. Anything of value received by the person on behalf of the state that inures to the benefit of the state or that becomes the property of the state; or
- 4. Contributions solicited on behalf of a nonprofit organization which is exempt from taxation under paragraph (3) of subsection (c) of section 501 of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended.

Subparagraph (3) is directly applicable. The financial donations solicited or accepted for the Governor's Weight Loss Challenge inures to the benefit of the state because the state would have to otherwise pay for these cash incentives for state employees. Thus, an employee of the Office of the Governor may solicit and accept such financial donations for the challenge.

Finally, an employee of the Officer of the Governor must consider whether a donor has a special interest. A special interest exists if a donor is affected individually, distinct from the people of the state as a whole, in a matter pending before the legislature or state agency, officer or employee. K.S.A. 46-228. If a donor has a special interest and a donation is made under circumstances where such officer or employee knows or should know that a major purpose of the donor in granting the same could be to influence the performance of their official duties, the donation may not be accepted. K.S.A. 46-236.
